

Donate to Backpacks For Life in Support of Our Veterans

Donations Accepted May 1–May 20

We're excited to announce Sunrise of New Dorp is now a collection site for Backpacks for Life from May 1st to May 20th. Please stop by our community to drop off your donation of essential items that will be provided to homeless and at-risk veterans and their families by this wonderful nonprofit organization, Backpacks for Life. We look forward to sharing with you the many ways we'll partner with local establishments and support the neighborhood once we open.

Donation Items: gloves, hats, notebook, pens, toiletries, feminine hygiene products, first aid kit, washcloths, mini flashlights, and more.

To receive a full list of items, please contact us today. Additionally, you can make monetary donations through the QR code below:

Support Our Veterans with Backpacks for Life

Thursday, May 20 | 2:00-4:00 p.m.

Join us at Sunrise of New Dorp for the final day of donation collections for homeless and at-risk veterans and their families, facilitated by the nonprofit organization, Backpacks for Life. While you're here, stop by the information tables set-up for our professional partners, including Visiting Nurse Service of New York, the NYPD 122 Community Council, Backpacks for Life, and Sunrise of New Dorp, for a chance to connect with them and learn more about all we do in support of our local neighborhood.

Donation Items: gloves, hats, notebook, pens, toiletries, feminine hygiene products, first aid kit, washcloths, mini flashlights, and more. To receive a full list of items, please contact us today.
