HIV AWARD: Dr. Jay Dobkin, chief medical officer with Visiting Nurse Service of New York Choice Health Plans, will receive the Commissioner's Special Recognition Award from the state Department of Health for his work in HIV and AIDS, the organization said Tuesday. The award is given at the 23rd Annual World AIDS Day event today. The award recognizes leaders in improving HIV, LGBT health, substance-use, youth sexual health and the prevention and treatment of hepatitis C and sexually transmitted infections.
