

Party Pictures: Paving the Way

New York Social Diary, November 17, 2022

VNS Health's 2022 gala benefit was a stirring celebration of the organization's legacy of service to New Yorkers in need, and the dedicated health care champions throughout the community who deliver care in New Yorker's homes every day. Eugenie F. Doyle, MD, and Stephen A. Warnke, Partner, Ropes & Gray LLP were both awarded the prestigious Lillian D. Wald Award during evening. The event raised close to $1.2 million which will support VNS Health's Charitable Care and Community Benefit Programs.

This year's VNS Health Annual Benefit was the first held in two years and hosted at the Ziegfeld Ballroom.

The Lillian D. Wald Award, named after the founder of VNS Health, is presented to those who have made significant contributions to the health and welfare of others.

A legend in pediatric cardiology, Eugenie F. Doyle, MD, is Professor Emerita at NYU Langone Medical Center, where she forged a deeply influential 47-year career, including 35 years as NYU's Director of Pediatric Cardiology.

Stephen A. Warnke, Partner, Ropes & Gray LLP has been a health care lawyer for more than 30 years, the last 20 as a Partner of Ropes & Gray in its New York City office, during which he co-chaired the firm's health care practice for 7 years, and has represented mission-driven hospitals, health systems, managed care plans, non-hospital provider organizations and community-based human services agencies, expertly advising on the full spectrum of federal and state health care regulatory and compliance issues, as well as transactional and governance matters.

From L-R: VNS Health CEO and President Dan Savitt, PIX11 Anchor, and the evening's MC, Kori Chambers, VNS Health Board Chairman Andrew Schiff, MD, Eugenie F. Doyle, MD, VNS Health Board Member Emerita, Stephen A. Warnke, Partner, Ropes & Gray LLP, and Kerry Parker, VNS Health EVP, Chief Legal and Risk Officer. Doyle and Warnke were both awarded the prestigious Lillian D. Wald Award that evening.

VNS Health Board Chairman Andrew Schiff, MD, presents the Lillian D. Wald Award to Eugenie F. Doyle, MD, VNS Health Board Member Emerita

Stephen A. Warnke, Partner, Ropes & Gray LLP is presented the Lillian D. Wald Award by Kerry Parker, VNS Health EVP, Chief Legal and Risk Officer.

VNS Health CEO and President Dan Savitt.

PIX11 Anchor, and the evening's MC, Kori Chambers.

New York Social Diary covers New York society. It discusses events in New York, including parties, gallery openings and other social events. Coverage includes prominent New Yorkers, including politicians and celebrities. Sections include Social Diary, Party Pictures, Calendar, Social History, The List/Cameo, House, Dining, Philanthropy, Art Set, Travel, Across the World, Gallery, Guest Diaries, Classifieds, Shopping Diary and Archives. It reaches an audience of 46,770 through articles and social reach.