

People on the Move in Albany: Carla Renders

Albany Business Review, Mar 12, 2025

Carla Renders joins the Health Plans team at VNS Health as Director, Upstate Network Management. A lifelong resident of Upstate New York, with 20+ years of experience in the managed care field, Carla is responsible for helping VNS Health grow its provider networks across 10+ counties in Upstate New York and strengthening access to care for New Yorkers who rely on Medicaid and Medicare. Prior to joining VNS Health, she served as Director, Network Management, at MVP Health Care.

The Albany Business Review reports on the condition of northeastern New York business and financial happenings. Features are aimed at business professionals in this area who are interested in studying about the impact that local production, marketing and investment news. Editorial content is made up of both breaking business news and topically focused feature articles. The focus articles cover such diverse industries as healthcare, banking, construction, residential and commercial real estate, retail, manufacturing and legal practice. In addition to the lead stories, focus articles and commentary, the paper also carries strategies for small businesses and entrepreneurs. It reaches an estimated audience of 5,851,441.