

At a Glance: Behavioral Health Clinic

Amanda D'Ambrosio, April 18, 2025

VNS Health launched a new behavioral health clinic in Mott Haven on Thursday that offers mental health and substance use services. The clinic, which holds a dual license to treat mental health and substance use disorders, offers crisis intervention and care coordination services that can reach patients with multiple behavioral illnesses, aiming to provide a “one-stop shop” for community-based behavioral health care, VNS Health said. The new facility aims to treat high rates of mental illness and overdose in the Bronx.
